EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYMENT

Our hiring policy at ROCS is quite simple: we intend to hire the best-qualified and most highly-motivated people for the positions we offer. That is why our operational policy is to seek, select, employ, train, appraise and promote employees solely on the basis of their qualifications for the job to be filled.

It is ROCS' policy not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or any status protected by local, state or federal law and executive orders. This applies to all areas of employment, including, but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, training and compensation.

DRUG FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

The use, manufacture, purchase, sale, offer for sale, distribution or possession of any illegal drugs or controlled substances on ROCS' premises is prohibited, as is being under the influence of illegal drugs or controlled substances upon reporting to work, while working or on duty or while on ROCS property, ROCS Client property or in a ROCS or Client vehicle. Reporting to work or working while under the influence of alcohol is also prohibited. Violation of this policy may lead to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Any employee who has information concerning possible violations of ROCS' Drug Free Workplace policy should contact a ROCS Representative. Similarly, if a supervisor suspects that an employee has a drug or alcohol abuse problem, the supervisor should contact a ROCS Rep. ROCS may perform drug testing in the following situations:

- Pre-Employment;
- Reasonable Suspicion;
- Post Injury, where reasonable cause exists that an employee is under the influence;
- Random testing for "safety sensitive" positions in Virginia, and as permitted by law in other states.

The following may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment:

- Drug screen results that are positive (based on federally prescribed cut-off levels) for prohibited drugs;
- Alcohol screen results that indicate an alcohol level of .04% or greater;
- Refusal to participate in the screening process; or
- Any attempt to alter, falsify or intentionally contaminate a drug test.

HARASSMENT-FREE WORKPLACE

All ROCS employees are entitled to work in an environment that is free from harassment, hostility, and intimidation. Sexual harassment, or discriminatory conduct such as intimidation or ridicule based on gender, race, national origin, sexual orientation, pregnancy, age, religion, disability or other basis protected by law that creates an offensive work environment will not be tolerated.

If you believe you have been harassed or witnessed an incident of harassment, it is your responsibility to immediately notify your ROCS point of contact. Allegations will be investigated promptly and thoroughly and handled as confidentially as possible. If it is determined that inappropriate conduct has occurred, including retaliation, ROCS will act promptly to ensure that the conduct is eliminated and appropriate corrective action is taken.. False allegations may also be considered violations of this policy. ROCS accepts no liability for harassment.

SAFETY POLICY

Establishing and maintaining a safe work environment is of great importance to ROCS and our clients. Safety is the shared responsibility of everyone. ROCS strives to accept clients that provide a safe environment that complies with federal, state, and local safety regulations for all its employees. All accidents shall be reported immediately to the employee's ROCS point of contact, regardless of how insignificant the injury may appear. Such reports are necessary to comply with State laws and comply with workers' compensation insurance procedures. Violation of the safety policy may result in discipline up to and including termination. To make the workplace safe for you and your fellow employees, it's your responsibility to:

- Notify your ROCS point of contact of any requested changes in your job duties, or if you're asked to operate equipment or perform a task for which you have not been trained.
- Immediately report all unsafe working conditions to your supervisor, as well as to your ROCS point of contact.
- Operate only those machines, tools or vehicles that your ROCS point of contact has indicated are part of your assignment and for which you've received instruction or training.
- Tell your supervisor that you must first contact your ROCS point of contact if you're asked to perform an unsafe task or operate any equipment that your ROCS point of contact had not approved you to use in writing.
- Inform the supervisor or customer that you cannot perform those tasks without approval from ROCS.

BENEFITS WAIVER FOR ASSIGNED EMPLOYEES

In consideration of my assignment with any ROCS, Inc. and its Clients; I agree that I am solely an employee of ROCS, Inc. for benefits plan purposes and that I am eligible only for such benefits as ROCS Inc., may offer to me as its employees. I further understand and agree that I am not eligible for or entitled to participate in or make any claim upon any benefit plan, policy, or practice offered by ROCS, Inc or its Clients, its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, or successors to any of their direct employees, regardless of the length of my assignment with any ROCS Client by ROCS, Inc. and regardless of whether I am held to be a common-law employee of ROCS, Inc. Client for any purpose; and therefore, with full knowledge and understanding, I hereby expressly waive any claim or right that I may have, now or in the future, to such benefits and agree not to make any claim for such benefits.

AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT

Your employment with ROCS is "at-will." That means your assignment and/or employment can be terminated for any reason, with or without cause. At termination of your employment, ROCS is not liable for wages or salary except those you earned prior to the date of termination.

COMPUTER, INTERNET, AND PHONE USE

Unless specifically asked by your direct supervisor, do not utilize the internet while on the job. Visiting illicit websites will not be tolerated. Also, please turn off your cell phone while at work. Please limit personal calls to emergencies only during scheduled work hours.

Our customers reserve the right to access and monitor your use of their company property, including the use of company data networks, to determine compliance with their policies. Your failure to comply with these policies may lead to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

ASSIGNMENT AVAILABILITY

To maintain employee status with ROCS, you must keep us informed as to your availability. When you complete an assignment, notify ROCS by phone or email within 48 hours. You are then required to email or call us weekly to inform us of your availability status. If we don't hear from you within 48 hours of an assignment completion, and every week thereafter until an assignment is started, we will consider you unavailable for work and to have voluntarily resigned from employment.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

If you fail to comply with the Assignment Availability Policy listed above, Unemployment Compensation benefits may be denied

NEW EMPLOYEE AGREEMENT

You acknowledge that ROCS, Inc. will expend a considerable amount of time and expense placing you on an assignment at one of our clients and maintaining your employment with that client. As an employee of ROCS, Inc. you agree that any sort of connections or contacts that ROCS, Inc. provides to you, or after your assignment is finished with our client that you will not return to this client including all of its additional locations or through another temporary agency, employment company or any other company directly with that client in any way for a period of 12 months from contact or the end date of your assignment through ROCS, Inc. You may accept permanent employment at our client based on the terms and conditions ROCS, Inc. has negotiated with the specific client. You understand that ROCS, Inc. is a staffing company that reserves the right to charge our clients a fee if there is permanent employment.

I _____ have read, understand and promise to adhere to ROCS' policies on:

- Drug-Free Workplace Policy
- Benefits Waiver for Assigned Employees
- Equal Employment Opportunity
- Harassment-Free Workplace
- Safety
- Computer, Internet, and Phone Use
- At-Will Employment
- Assignment Availibility

Instructions

Please read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the U.S.) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work eligible individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and non-citizen) hired after November 6, 1986 is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should the Form I-9 Be Used?

All employees, citizens and noncitizens, hired after November 6, 1986 and working in the United States must complete a Form I-9.

Filling Out the Form I-9

Section 1, Employee: This part of the form must be completed at the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Preparer/Translator Certification. The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his/her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer: For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers or farm labor contractors.

Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment eligibility within three (3) business days of the date employment begins. If employees are authorized to work, but are unable to present the required document(s) within three business days, they must present a receipt for the application of the document(s) within three business days and the actual document(s) within ninety (90) days. However, if employers hire individuals for a duration of less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers must record:

1. Document title;
2. Issuing authority;
3. Document number;
4. Expiration date, if any; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. These photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with the Form I-9. However, employers are still responsible for completing and retaining the Form I-9.

Section 3, Updating and Reverification: Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying the Form I-9. Employers must reverify employment eligibility of their employees on or before the expiration date recorded in Section 1. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

- A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.
- B. If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still eligible to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.
- C. If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B and:

1. Examine any document that reflects that the employee is authorized to work in the U.S. (see List A or C);
2. Record the document title, document number and expiration date (if any) in Block C, and
3. Complete the signature block.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no associated filing fee for completing the Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. The Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below.

USCIS Forms and Information

To order USCIS forms, call our toll-free number at 1-800-870-3676. Individuals can also get USCIS forms and information on immigration laws, regulations and procedures by telephoning our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or visiting our internet website at www.uscis.gov.

Photocopying and Retaining the Form I-9

A blank Form I-9 may be reproduced, provided both sides are copied. The Instructions must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain completed Forms I-9 for three (3) years after the date of hire or one (1) year after the date employment ends, whichever is later.

The Form I-9 may be signed and retained electronically, as authorized in Department of Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR § 274a.2.

Privacy Act Notice

The authority for collecting this information is the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, Pub. L. 99-603 (8 USC 1324a).

This information is for employers to verify the eligibility of individuals for employment to preclude the unlawful hiring, or recruiting or referring for a fee, of aliens who are not authorized to work in the United States.

This information will be used by employers as a record of their basis for determining eligibility of an employee to work in the United States. The form will be kept by the employer and made available for inspection by officials of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Department of Labor and Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices.

Submission of the information required in this form is voluntary. However, an individual may not begin employment unless this form is completed, since employers are subject to civil or criminal penalties if they do not comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

Paperwork Reduction Act

We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can be easily understood and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex. Accordingly, the reporting burden for this collection of information is computed as follows: 1) learning about this form, and completing the form, 9 minutes; 2) assembling and filing (recordkeeping) the form, 3 minutes, for an average of 12 minutes per response. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this burden estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., 3rd Floor, Suite 3008, Washington, DC 20529. Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification

Please read instructions carefully before completing this form. The instructions must be available during completion of this form.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE: It is illegal to discriminate against work eligible individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

Form W-4 (2010)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2010 expires February 16, 2011. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2010. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws, and using it in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

EMPLOYER: Keep exemption certificates with your records. If you believe the employee has claimed too many exemptions, notify the Department of Taxation, P.O. Box 1115, Richmond, Virginia 23218-1115, telephone (804) 367-8037.

FORM VA-4 INSTRUCTIONS

Use this form to notify your employer whether you are subject to Virginia income tax withholding and how many exemptions you are allowed to claim. You must file this form with your employer when your employment begins. If you do not file this form, your employer must withhold Virginia income tax as if you had no exemptions.

PERSONAL EXEMPTION WORKSHEET

You may not claim more personal exemptions on form VA-4 than you are allowed to claim on your income tax return unless you have received written permission to do so from the Department of Taxation.

Line 1. You may claim an exemption for yourself.

Line 2. You may claim an exemption for your spouse if he or she is not already claimed on his or her own certificate.

Line 3. Enter the number of dependents you are allowed to claim on your income tax return.

NOTE: A spouse is not a dependent.

Line 5. If you will be age 65 or over by January 1, you may claim one exemption on Line 5(a). If you claim an exemption for your spouse on Line 2, and your spouse will also be age 65 or over by January 1, you may claim an additional exemption on Line 5(b).

Line 6. If you are legally blind, you may claim an exemption on Line 6(a). If you claimed an exemption for your spouse on Line 2, and your spouse is legally blind, you may claim an exemption on Line 6(b).

FORM VA-4

Be sure to enter your social security number, name and address in the spaces provided.

Line 1. If you are subject to withholding, enter the number of exemptions from:

(a) Subtotal of Personal Exemptions - line 4 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet

(b) Subtotal of Exemptions for Age and Blindness - line 7 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet

(c) Total Exemptions - line 8 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet

Line 2. If you wish to have additional tax withheld, and your employer has agreed to do so, enter the amount of additional tax on this line.
